

The organisers of Ickleford Remembers: The Armistice Centenary Commemorations gratefully acknowledge the financial or 'in kind' support of:

- The Armed Forces Covenant Fund
- Jas Bowman and Sons Limited
- The Co-op, Stotfold
- Consilium Financial Planning Limited
- Evolution Tree Works Ltd
- Hair by Talents
- Hitchin Lavender
- Ickleford Stores
- Ickleford Parish Council
- Ickleford Village Hall committee
- Ickleford WI
- F Lawton & Son
- Meadow Farm
- No. 39 Hair & Beauty
- North Hertfordshire District Council
- The Old George Public House
- Offley Memorials Ltd
- Mike and Shirley Williams

We also thank the following for their advice, input and logistical support:

- All participants in the day's events
- Carol Harwood
- Kay Baker and Ickleford WI
- Rob Carter and Ickleford Burial Ground Trust
- Rev Mary de Salis, Rev Margaret Holford and St Katharine's Church
- Colin Gooch
- Stuart Izzard, North Hertfordshire District Council
- David Leedham
- Gillian Matthews, Jo Riddle and Ickleford Scouts, Cubs & Beavers
- Sgt Steve Oliphant and Hitchin Police
- The Royal British Legion, Hitchin branch
- Harry Spencer-Smith
- Josh Tidy
- Lewis Vincent-Lake, Lindsay Creak and The Priory School
- Sarah Wright, Sue Dury, Bradley Horgan and Ickleford Primary School
- Residents who loaned memorabilia
- Members of the Parish Council